BEDFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA

Militia Records

BEDFORD COUNTY, VA Militia records 1758
Probably an incomplete list but does not include a DENNEY, and they should be living there still at this time. It does include the following names of interest.

Captains John Phelps, John Quarles, Mathew and Charles Talbot; Lieutenants William Irvine; Ensigns Thomas Gilbert and William Irvine; privates include John Talbot, Daniel Gilbert, Benjamin Gilbert, Acquiller Gilbert, George Caldwell, William Hinton, Jonathan Jennings, Barlet Henson, John Lawson, Samuel Gilbert, Daniel Gilbert, Charles Talbot, Joseph Benning, John Benning, John Moore, Mathew Talbot, John Daunn, William Nix, Jesse Paty, David Irvine, Thomas Owen, Jacob Pate, John Pate, Matt. Pate, Jeremiah Pate, John Loson, David Loson, Wm. Lucks, Samuel Gilbert, James Talbot, Thomas Sexton, John Ward, Charles Bright, Edward Bright, and William Phelps, Jonathan Jennings. (Crozier, William Armstrong, ed. Virginia Colonial Militia: 1651-1776 Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Company, 1965)

BEDFORD COUNTY, VA militia records 1765
The Virginia Burgesses passed an act to pay for the expenses incurred by the colony during the French and Indian War. Payments to the Miliita of Bedford County. John Lawson and Bartlet Hinson 8 shillings each. Thomas Sexton 2 pounds 10 shillings.

BEDFORD COUNTY, VA Lord Dunmore's War 1774
William Denny of Bedford County is listed with Capt. Benj. Harrison's Company.