GOOCHLAND COUNTY, VA                      Court order                      1737/38
At a Court Continued and held for Goochland County the 23rd day of March 1737/1738, on the Pet. Of John Johnson asse. Of Isaac Hoel agt. Samuel Denny the Deft. failing to appear Judgmt. Is granted the Petitioner for Forty eight shillings Corrt. Money with costs. (Goochland County Order Book 4, page 274) (From an E-mail of Mary Denney. Here are some comments from Richard Hirtzel concerning the lawsuit in Goochland Co., 1737/38. It involved a claim made by John Johnston, assee. of Isaac Hoel, against Samuel Denny. Denny did not appear and Judgment was granted to the petitioner in the amount of 48 shillings.... Quote from Hirtzel: "A Johnson, who appears to be the plaintiff, lived on Little Byrd Creek in Goochland Co. This suggests that Samuel Denney must have lived nearby, and hence near John Denny of Byrd Creek. Johnson could be the same as Johnston which is found on the same page with Benjamin Denny in the Partridge Store account. Also the surname, Hoel, with different spellings, is found in the Partridge Store records. Isaac Hoel was involved in the lawsuit." (Comment from Mary Denney: John Johnston was mentioned as 'assee. of Isaac Hoel.' This seems to mean that Hoel had some kind of claim against Denney but turned the matter over to Johnstone to pursue the claim. I found many Hoels on the Internet but none that seemed connected to this one. The name seems to be Scandinavian in origin.) Further quote from Hirtzel: "None of this indicates what type of family relationship existed between John, Benj. and the 1737 Samuel---but if Johnson/Johnston lived on Little Byrd Creek on a Branch in Goochland and if Samuel Denny lived nearby, then that Samuel probably has some family relationship with John Denny and Benjamin. They could be brothers, or cousins or one of them could be the father or uncle of the others. However, it worked, they would have a common Denny ancestor--father, grand-father or grt-grand-father. So we would be on the right trail in any event.....The John Denny of 1791 in Kent County Militia could have been the 1708 John Denny who we placed earlier by the location of his neighbors in the general direction of Hanover City. This would place him a little old to be the 1755 Bedford Co. John Denny, only in the sense that most people are not wheeling and dealing with real estate transactions at that age.....It almost seems more understandable that Old Sam would have been in Goochland Co. on or near Byrd Creek in 1737, than not. If he md. a Southard, this is the place that he could have met her.....I don't think that a John Denny in the New Kent Co. Militia in 1701 would necessarily indicate that later Dennys were not immigrants since it was not unusual for one family to immigrate first and then other relatives to follow later." ....End of comments from R. Hirtzel

GOOCHLAND COUNTY, VA                      court orders                      1743
The inventory (or maybe the sale) of the estate of William Apshone occurred at the dwelling of Captain Charles Lewis. The members of the committee that served were Jonas Lawson, Thomas Stone, and John Deeney. John Denney signed his mark as J. If the inventory of the estate of William Apshone took place at the home of Charles Lewis, maybe he was an employee of Lewis. (Weisiger, Benjamin B. III. Goochland County, Virginia, Wills and Deeds: 1742-1749. Richmond: 1984. p.6. Will Book 1742-1745 p. 299.)

GOOCHLAND COUNTY, VA                      court orders                      May 1761
John Henson acknowledges a deed with the Receipt of Livery and Seizen, endorsed to John Martin of the City of Dublin, Ireland. (Goochland County Court Records, May 1761, Acts and Deeds which are ordered to be recorded.) This is probably the land that John Hinson purchased from John Denney July 19, 1744. John Denney shared a border with John Martin.
